GIO Australian Schoolboy Cup
2013 Semi-Final

Patrician Brothers’ College Blacktown

v

Endeavour Sports High

Wednesday 4 September, 1.20pm
St Mary’s Stadium

Patrician Brothers’ College Blacktown has again made history by qualifying for the Semi-Final of the nationally televised rugby league competition—the GIO Australian Schoolboy Cup.

We will play Endeavour Sports High on Wednesday 4 September at St Marys Stadium, 1.20pm. This game will be televised nationally.

We are enabling the entire school and wider community to attend and support our boys as they represent us in this the premier schoolboy competition in Australia!

By attending you will be:

• Supporting the school community. YOUR school community!
• Participating in a national event
• Able to say ‘I was there with my mates to cheer on OUR team’

Students will be provided with transport, ground entry for our game and a commemorative GO PATTIES shirt for only $5
So what are you waiting for! Book your ticket NOW!

ALL students and staff will be attending. We encourage parents, ex-students, ex-staff and the wider community to also attend (for $5 you will receive ground entry and our commemorative _GO PATTIES_ shirt.

_The only requirement is that you must cheer for the Patties Boys!_

Parents, ex-students and the wider community can obtain tickets:

- In person at the school office, 100 Flushcombe Road Blacktown
- By ringing Mrs Kim Antonelli on 9671 3000

Ticket sales close on Friday 30 August.

Unfortunately we can only transport current students and staff.

First in will secure their tickets!

---

What students will receive for their $5 ticket price:

- Return transport by coach from the school
- Ground entry for the GIO Australian Schoolboy Cup Semi-Final
- Commemorative _GO PATTIES_ shirt